Enrolment options

 Practical Test - C Badge

Description
To successfully pass the C Badge Practical Assessment, umpires must be rated as competent on all aspects of the assessable performance criteria. Testers only need to write a comment if the umpire has not achieved competency for a particular performance criteria. If the ASSESSMENT DECISION is COMPETENT, additional comments may be made in the General Comments section. If the ASSESSMENT DECISION is NOT YET COMPETENT, the Testers need to outline the ACTION PLAN discussed with the umpire. The action plan statement should identify further training, development or assessment needs to assist the umpire to reach the competency standard. Completed assessment forms are to be sent to the respective Member Organisation, which will send a copy to the umpire.

What you'll need to demonstrate
Candidates for the 'C' badge should display a basic grasp of game management skills, umpiring techniques and practical application of the rules to penalise obvious infringements. This is an ENTRY-LEVEL BADGE ONLY and testers should not expect a perfect display.
