"Joining the Victorian Chamber of Commerce has been incredibly beneficial for Netball Victoria. Their expert advice and support on workplace relations issues have provided us with much-needed peace of mind. The ability to access tailored guidance has been invaluable. We strongly recommend their services to any employer in need of human resources and workplace relations support, particularly those without an internal HR team."

"The Victorian Chamber provided us with a comprehensive review of our policy handbook. Their specialist team also took this a step further and provided specific advice relating to our industry including current practices and trends. This advice was invaluable."
