

Hardship Guidelines

Overview

Netball Victoria's Community Support Program has supported the netball community for over a decade, with generous donations from Jean Cowan and Margaret Pewtress providing financial assistance to families, communities and individuals to ensure there are no barriers to participating in our sport.

We are committed to supporting our netball community during times of hardship through assistance with membership fees, club fees, uniform, coach/umpire accreditation.

Eligibility for assistance

Funding may be allocated to individuals who are experiencing financial hardship.

Individuals in NSW who are affiliated with Netball Victoria will also be eligible to apply.

Applications will be assessed by the Netball Victoria grant assessment panel in accordance with the program guidelines. Final approvals will be granted following internal review processes.

Dates

Applications open	April 2026
Applications close	Open until end of 2026 unless the money is exhausted before the end date.
